Isfahan University Of Medical Sciences Code: SAV-Procs-PR-En.Follow Up Imam Musa Kazem Educational and Medical Center Proses title: Providing necessary education during discharge to patient/patient's family by nurse in charge, homecare liaison and general education manager Providing the patient/patient's family with the required forms and documents* by nurse in charge, homecare liaison and general education manager Carrying out patient discharge steps and leaving the hospital Phone calls by general education manager with patient/family during the first week, first month Is the patient a child or with more than 40% and first quarter after discharge for emphasizing burn? follow-up and continuation of treatment Patient visiting the burn clinic every other day for evacuation and continuation of treatment, if necessary, determining the date of surgery by the physician Physiotherapy sessions and other necessary activities, every other day, filling the physiotherapy forms and determining the patient's need for further session by physiotherapy expert. Patient referral to psychologist in case of history of mental health problems, anxiety or in case of disorders caused by the burn by the physician in charge Patient referral nutritionist for nutritional consultation in case of weakness, Lethargy, weight reduction and pale skin during evaluation by the physician in charge or general practitioner Continued visitations to burn clinic for at least the first week after full healing of the injury in order to evaluate the scar, deformity or changes in the color of the tissue by the physician in charge Continued visitations to physiotherapist for at least the first week after full healing of the injury and advice for use of antiscar clothing if necessary, by the physiotherapist Conducting the necessary visitations and follow-ups according to patient's conditions and decisions regarding continuation or end of treatment by the physician and physiotherapist yes Does the patient require further treatment according to current status?

Informing the patient regarding completion of treatment and lack of need for further visits by the physician and physiotherapist

Remarks:

* These documents include discharge card, psychologist referral card, physiotherapy referral card, homecare referral letter if desired, medical file summary and nursing care form